REC Toolbox

Copy or download material to build your own marketing material

- Choose the topic you want information on
- Some have options to choose
- Copy by clicking button
- Scroll down for Downloads
 - Logos
 - Images
 - Links to videos
- Direct link to ProPage

The screenshot shows the REC Toolbox interface. At the top, there are navigation buttons for 'REC GROUP', 'REC PRO TRUST WARRANTY', 'REC CERTIFIED SOLAR PROFESSIONALS', and 'REC PRODUCTS'. A dropdown menu for 'SELECT A PANEL MODEL' is set to 'PANELS MODELS'. On the right, a 'REC PRO PAGE' section offers to 'Create your REC ProPage, share and conquer new customers!' with an 'OPEN PROPAGE EDITOR' button. Below this is a 'CONTENT ABOUT REC GROUP' section with a sub-section 'ABOUT REC'. The 'About REC' text describes the company's commitment to quality and sustainability. A 'COPY TEXT' button is located below the text. At the bottom, a 'DOWNLOAD AREA' features four logos: three standard REC logos and one black REC logo. Yellow arrows point from the text on the left to these specific elements: the top navigation bar, the 'OPEN PROPAGE EDITOR' button, the 'ABOUT REC' dropdown, the 'COPY TEXT' button, and the black REC logo in the download area.

Creating your own REC Propage

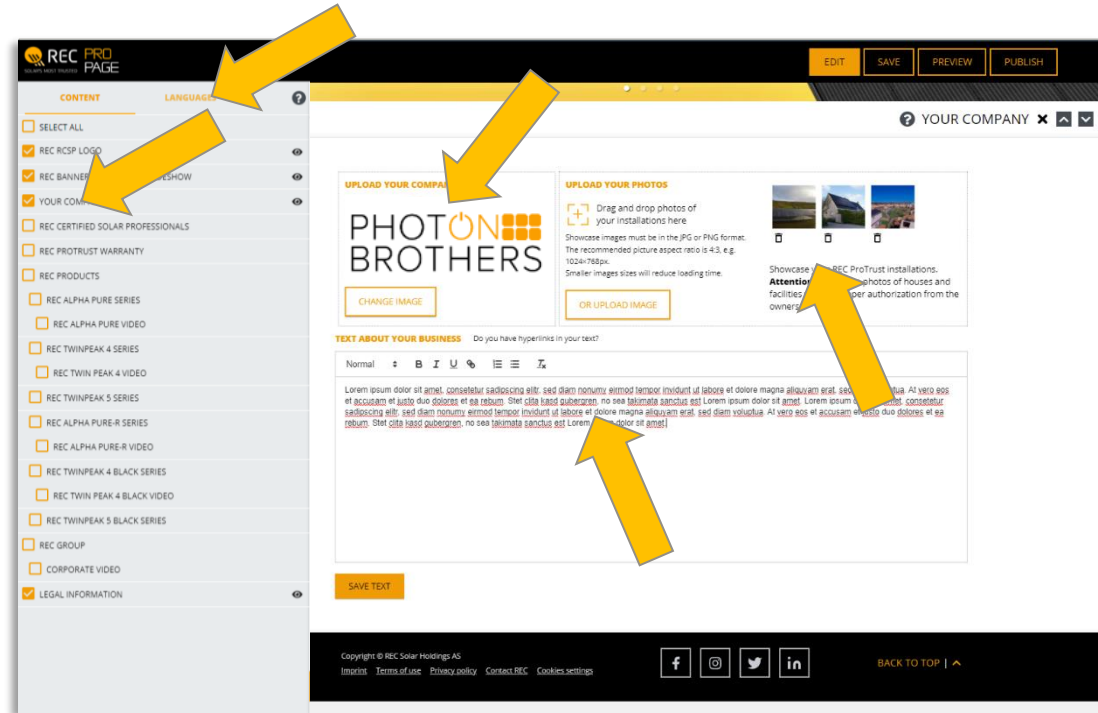

- Choose elements from menu
 - Chose the REC products you sell
 - Choose the best elements for you
- Click  to jump between elements
- Use the arrows to change the order of the elements
- Don't forget contact details if creating a stand-alone page

Customizing for your business

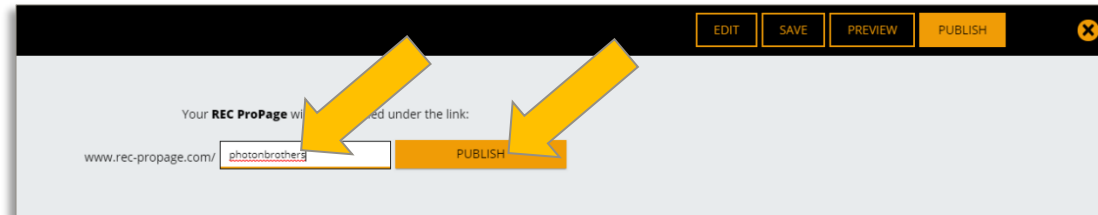

- Add the Your Company element from the menu
- Add your company logo
- Add photos to show your best installations
- Add exciting text to say why customers should choose you
- Click the Language tab to choose ProPage languages
 - These are already translated, so ProPage is ready to go

Preview & publish

- Click PREVIEW to see your site
 - Desktop or Mobile view
- Click PUBLISH to go live
 - Enter the name for your site
 - e.g., company name
 - www.rec-propage.com/photonbrothers
- Click PUBLISH
 - Use ProPage as a stand-alone webpage for your company
 - Copy snippet to embed the code in an existing website
- Use EDIT button to return and make any further changes

A group of seven children are silhouetted against a bright, golden sunset sky. They are captured in various dynamic poses, jumping and playing together in a field. The children are holding hands in a loose circle, and their hair and clothing are blowing in the wind, suggesting a breezy day. The overall mood is joyful and energetic.

Thank you
